- Szombathely (Savaria Campus): Pável Ágoston Dormitory I, II, and III.

Note: For detailed information on fees, facilities, and location, please refer to the interactive map and comparative tables on the official ELTE Dormitory website.

3. Application Process

3.1. Eligibility:

All ELTE students and applicants are eligible to apply, regardless of their faculty, scholarship status, or citizenship.

3.2. How to Apply:

- Current ELTE Students: Apply via the Neptun system.
- New Applicants (without Neptun access): Use the dedicated online form for international students.

3.3. Application Results:

Decisions are typically released around:

- Autumn Semester: ~10th July
- Spring Semester: ~5th January
- Summer Period: ~10th June

All applicants are notified of the decision simultaneously.

4. Allocation Priority System

Places are allocated based on the following priority groups, in descending order:

1. Students with special needs (with a recommendation from the ELTE Disability Centre).
2. Students on scholarships that guarantee accommodation (specific ministerial/bilateral agreements).
3. First-year students with Stipendium Hungaricum, Christian Young People, or Hungarian Diaspora Scholarships.
4. Continuing students with the above scholarships.

5. Students on other scholarships (e.g., Erasmus+, CEEPUS).
6. Self-paying students.
7. ELTE staff (interns, trainees, guest teachers).
8. Non-ELTE applicants.

Within each group, applications are processed in time order.

5. Financial Information

5.1. Dormitory Fee:

- The fee includes all utilities: electricity, water, heating, and high-speed internet.
- It must be paid for every begun calendar month of residence.
- Payment is made exclusively through the Neptun system.

5.2. Scholarships & Allowances:

- Stipendium Hungaricum Scholars: Must pay the difference between the full dormitory fee and their accommodation allowance via Neptun.
- Christian Young People & Diaspora Scholars: Do not pay the dormitory fee for months in which they are eligible for the accommodation allowance.
- Scholarship transfers are processed in advance; cancelling a dormitory place after the transfer list is closed will delay the payout.

5.3. Deposit Refund:

- The deposit is automatically refunded to your Neptun joint account 3-4 weeks after you move out, provided all fees are settled.
 - To transfer this amount to your personal bank account, follow the instructions on the Quaestura Office website.

6. Life in the Dormitories

6.1. Facilities & Services Included:

- Furnished Room: Bed, mattress, pillow, blanket, wardrobe, shelf, table, chair, and a fridge-freezer.
- Common Areas: Equipped kitchens (stoves, microwaves, kettles), laundry facilities, and free gym access.
- Connectivity: Stable, fully-covered Wi-Fi throughout the building.
- Cleaning: Residents clean their own rooms; common areas are cleaned by dormitory staff.

6.2. Community & Activities:

- A vibrant community life with students from nearly 80 countries.
- Regular events include festivals, movie nights, board game clubs, and cultural celebrations around Hungarian and international holidays.
- International students are warmly encouraged to participate and initiate their own events.

6.3. Room Assignment:

- Hungarian and international students live in the same buildings.
 - Rooms and bathrooms are gender-separated.
 - While single rooms are rarely available, students can submit roommate requests before the academic year begins.

7. Important Policies

7.1. Duration of Stay:

- A dormitory place is typically secured for the entire academic year without the need for reapplication.

7.2. Early Move-Out:

- If you need to move out before the end of the academic year, you must:
 1. Inform your dormitory leader and the international coordinator at least one month in advance.
 2. Officially sign out with the dormitory administrator to finalize the process.
- Failure to complete the official sign-out will result in continued charges.

7.3. Documentation:

- For Visa Applications: Your faculty-issued Letter of Acceptance can serve as temporary proof of accommodation.
- After Acceptance: The Dormitory Centre can provide an official proof of accommodation upon request.
- After Move-In: The dormitory office can provide various certificates (e.g., for residence registration) as needed.
