

ELTE Student Life & Organizations Guide

1. Overview of Student Life at ELTE

Beyond academics, ELTE offers a vibrant student life with numerous opportunities for extracurricular engagement, community building, and cultural exchange in Budapest.

2. Student Support & Integration Organizations

- Mentor Systems:
 - For New Students: Incoming international students can request a student mentor to help them with their first steps at ELTE and in Hungary.
 - For Upper-Year Students: Students can become mentors themselves to support new arrivals.
 - Key Organizations: The two largest mentor networks are ESN ELTE (Erasmus Student Network) and the Stipendium Hungaricum Mentor Network.
- University Students' Union:
 - Role: Represents all students (Hungarian and international) on issues related to studies, allowances, and any problems that arise during their academic journey.
- International Student Advisory Committee (ISAC):
 - Mission: Aims to promote and strengthen the representation of international students within the university.
- International Student Ambassadors:
 - Role: Current international students who share their firsthand experiences with prospective applicants interested in studying at ELTE.

3. Communities for Social & Cultural Life

- Dormitories:
 - Offer: More than just affordable accommodation; they provide a vibrant community life for students living on campus.
- Eötvös Art Ensemble:
 - Offer: A platform for artistic students to join the Béla Bartók University Choir, the University Chamber Orchestra, or the Folk Dance Group.
- ELTE TáTK Culture Club:
 - Mission: Open to all ELTE students from any faculty. Aims to build a community dedicated to cultural exchange and learning.
- ELTE International Relations Society (IRS):
 - Based at: Faculty of Social Sciences.
 - Mission: Focuses on integrating international and Hungarian students through high-level diplomatic events, social gatherings, workshops, and meetings with ambassadors.
 - Structure: Managed by a board led by a President, with equal representation of Hungarian and international students.

4. Special Interest & Activist Groups

- Sports Communities:
 - Offer: ELTE provides various sports opportunities where students can try new activities and meet others.
- ELTE Together for Environmental Consciousness (ELTE EKSZ):
 - Mission: A volunteer-based, institutional sustainability program that has been running since 2008.
 - Membership: Developed and run by a mix of students, employees, and volunteers, welcoming anyone from the university community.
